How's This One?

The Fort Lee budget included money "to establish new maxima for administrative personnel based on the individual's proper teaching salary." For the following positions this salary would be multiplied by the accompanying figure to determine proper salary:

Teaching principal—1.2, assistant principal—1.2, non-teaching principal—1.3, supervising principal—1.6.—New Jersey Educational Review.

The Personnel and Guidance Journal

successor to OCCUPATIONS

If you have read with interest OCCUPATIONS, "The Vocational Guidance Journal," you will look forward to publication in October of the first issue of its successor, "The Personnel and Guidance Journal." This Journal will be devoted to the interests of guidance and personnel workers. It will be the official publication of the American Personnel and Guidance Association and will be sent to all members of the Association's divisions—The National Vocational Guidance Association, The American College Personnel Association, Student Personnel Association for Teacher Education, and the National Association of Guidance Supervisors and Counselor Trainers. Subscriptions, or memberships in APGA, will be $6.00 a year. $.75 a copy.
